78th Year—153

U.S. Heritage Is Examined

NEW YORK (AP) — This is the season for examining the American heritage. And all sorts of people are doing it.

As the nation prepares to celebrate its Independence day next Tuesday churchmen, scholars, pundits and politicians are pondering how it all began. And where it is going.

"If the American dream is for Americans only, it will remain our dream and never be our destiny," says Dr. Rene de Visser Williams, chairman of Louisiana State University's department of government.

But what is the dream? What is the objective? Recent months have seen searching discussions about "national purpose."

"Clearly, the religious view and its moral implications were at the root of the founding father's innermost convictions," says Dr. Emile Caillet, professor of philosophy emeritus of Princeton Theological Seminary.

"Whatever political principles they laid down were directly derived from the religious view and its moral implications—in that order."

As the Declaration of Independence put the matter, it was self-evident that "All men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights" to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

That was the foundation of it: That each man bears a stamp of worth and dignity, endowed by a power beyond any man-made law or government.

"If we will not be governed by God," said American revolutionary leader William Penn, "then we will be governed by tyrants."

But it is questioned today whether the basic idea still thrives. Says Dr. Albert Hyma, University of Michigan professor of history:

"The United States in the past 50 years has been dominated to a large extent by persons who do not understand the spiritual heritage bequeathed by their ancestors."

"Unless a marked change takes place in the United States of America, it is doomed, just as surely as ancient Babylon."

His comments, along with those of other historians and scholars, were supplied for a forum on the subject in "Christianity Today," a national nondenominational weekly.

America's image has been "badly defaced" by the caricatures of Communist deceit, said Dr. V. Raymond Edman, president of Wheaton, Ill., College, but it "must be restored. And it can be."

Dr. Robert M. Sutton, history professor at the University of Illinois, said: "Only if we see the American dream clearly in the light of God's love, his power and his judgment do we have a right to hope, with Lincoln, that this nation under God may yet experience a new birth of freedom."

President Signs New Social Security Bill 'with Pleasure'

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today signed "with great pleasure" legislation increasing Social Security benefits for about 4.42 million Americans and permitting men to draw their benefits at the age of 62.

In signing the bill, Kennedy said the new amendments will make the Social Security System "a more effective instrument for the well-being of our people."

Only seven members of Congress, members of the House Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Finance Committee, showed up for the ceremony.

"You must be the only members of Congress left in Washington," Kennedy remarked, alluding to the Fourth of July holiday that has all but shut the Capitol down.

The increased benefits will begin showing up in checks received about Sept. 3, the Social Security Administration said.

Under the law, the increases are to start in the month beginning 30 days after signing. So the higher rates go into effect in August and are reflected in the checks mailed around Sept. 1.

Since this is the last day of June, a one-day delay by Kennedy in signing the bill, would have resulted in a one-month delay in effectiveness of the new benefits.

The bill cleared both the House and Senate Thursday with little debate after Senate-House conferees had resolved differences in the various bills passed earlier by both chambers.

Beginning Jan. 1, 4.42 million Americans will draw larger Social Security benefits. Men would be permitted to draw them at 62, instead of waiting until they reach 65. Women already may do so.

If a man chooses to retire at 62 he'll receive for the rest of his life 80 per cent of the benefits he would get if he waited until 65. If he retires sometime between 62 and 65 he will receive a pension proportionately larger than 80 per cent.

The new program is expected to cost $825 million in its first year. This is to be met by an increase in the payroll tax. Both employer and employee will have to pay one-eighth of 1 per cent more on the first $4,800 of the employee's annual income. The self-employed will have to increase their Social Security tax by one-fifth of 1 per cent.

Kuwait Quiet, But Border Troops Alert

KUWAIT (AP)—Armored reinforcements moved up to Kuwait's ill-defined northern border with Iraq today to face Iraqi armor reported here at two brigades.

British-built armored cars with Kuwaiti crews rolled through the capital 30 miles from the border during the predawn hours.

The border so far has been reported quiet, but officials said Iraqi forces had been strengthened along the frontier since Iraqi Premier Abdel Karim Kassem last week laid claim to the oil-rich sheikdom on the Persian Gulf after Britain gave it independence.

The city of Kuwait itself was quiet. Authorities have called a mass demonstration Saturday to show defiance to the Iraqi challenge.

(State Department sources in Washington said the department had warned Britain and other nations involved that sources which "could not be ignored" had reported possibility of an Iraqi attack on Kuwait this weekend.)

Kuwait has an army of only 2,400 men and the Iraqi army, at last report, numbered about 70,000.

But Britain is pledged by treaty to go to Kuwait's aid if asked. British troops at Bahrain, another oil center 270 miles down the Persian Gulf, are reported being strengthened. The aircraft carrier Bulwark is steaming from Karachi to the Persian Gulf with 600 royal marine commandos. The carrier Victorious and two frigates in the Far East are moving toward Singapore, reportedly being bound for the new crisis point.

3 Million U.S. Families May Get Housing Aid

Middle Income Group Is Target of New Federal Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy signed today a new housing bill which administration officials said could make three million moderate income families eligible to buy their own homes.

The $5,646,000,000 measure also may help other millions find better housing in moderate rental apartments, officials of the Housing and Home Finance Agency reported.

Kennedy himself called the bill the most important and far-reaching legislation in the field of housing since the law passed in 1949.

He signed the legislation in a White House ceremony attended by members of the House and Senate, government housing officials, and Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia, representing the country's mayors.

In his March housing message to Congress, Kennedy said, in effect, that the housing needs of upper bracket families had been met in the post World War II boom—mostly in new suburban developments.

Government housing officials have emphasized the legislation will be administered with this in mind.

The chief provision which will make more families eligible to buy homes is the extension of the mortgage term from 30 years to a maximum of 40 years under the moderate income family section.

FHA figures this will cut the monthly payment on a $15,000 house—the most expensive the agency will insure under the new program—from $82.95 to $74.85. The stretch-out also would increase the total interest the home buyer would pay.

It is this reduction in monthly payments which brought the rough estimates of eligibility under FHA income rules for 3 million more families.

The bill would give the moderate income family a 35-year mortgage as a matter of right. The term could be lengthened to 40 years if the FHA commissioner felt the buyer's income was inadequate to make the payments under a 35-year loan.

The down payment on a $15,000 house would be $450. Closing costs could be included in the loan.

The sponsors think several million more families may be able to afford apartments that could be built with a subsidized 3 per cent interest rate and government money under the moderate income program.

The individual home buyer above the $6,000 level also will get easier terms on FHA loans under the general insurance program.

He could obtain a 35-year mortgage, as compared with the present 30-year ceiling, and get an insured loan on a $25,000 home as against the present $22,500 top.

He also is given a somewhat smaller down payment schedule. This works out, for example, to $1,575 on a $22,500 house as compared with $2,205 under present law.

Truck Crashes After Blowout

A blow-out of a front tire on a tractor-trailer assembly sent the unit into a cornfield at 5:15 p. m. yesterday on Route 104 near the intersection of Route 56.

Deputies William Pontius and Neal Childress said today workers spent approximately 2½ hours getting the rig back onto the highway. The driver was not injured.

George William Howard, 37, Erie, Mich., was the operator of the vehicle. He was travelling south on Route 104 when the tire blew.

Deputies said the truck skidded about 95 feet on the highway, knocked into the ditch, knocked down a utility pole and seven fence posts and ripped out about 200 ft. of fence. The property damage was on the farm of Warren Moore.

106 Arrests Made In Gambling Raids

WASHINGTON (AP)—A nationwide series of raids on organized gambling by Internal Revenue Service agents has netted 106 arrests in 19 cities.

More than $90,000 in cash and 12 automobiles also were confiscated, IRS said Thursday night. Thursday's coordinated raids were aimed principally at horse race bookmakers and lottery operators.

DiSalle Vetoes Bill Relaxing Liability Law

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle today vetoed an act seeking to exempt charitable institutions from ordinary liability for negligent acts of their employees. He also signed a dozen new laws.

It was the governor's 10th veto of the current legislative session and the second time he has disapproved such a proposal.

Two years ago he vetoed a similar enactment. The Senate then voted to override but the House failed to act.

The proposal this session sought to make non-profit hospitals liable only for gross negligence, which the governor said is difficult to prove in court.

The act was designed to overcome an Ohio Supreme Court decision upholding ordinary liability for a non-profit corporation. "Under the doctrine of respondeat superior, it is liable for the torts of its servants," DiSalle said in explaining the decision.

"The proposed legislation," he added, "seeks to abolish this principle and to make the various non-profit corporations, societies and associations liable only for the gross negligence of its agents or servants."

"There is no standard established as to what constitutes gross negligence. This could only be determined by the courts in each individual case and only after a great deal of litigation."

Acts signed into law included those to:

Increase Bowling Green State University trustees from five to seven.

Facilitate financing of regional water and sewer districts by allowing them to bill customers directly and providing for payment of bonds and notes only from assessments. An emergency clause makes the law immediately effective.

Permits counties to issue notes in anticipation of specially voted revenues.

Sets a maximum fine of $1,000 and six months in jail for failure to report knowledge of deadly weapon wounds to authorities.

Exempt telephone company announcement services from fraudulent advertising penalties.

Require the Board of Building Standards to certify municipal building departments under certain conditions and limit the enforcement authority of uncertified municipal building departments.

Allow the department of education to issue certificates of educational administrative specialist.

Reduce from 200 to 100 yards the minimum distance between dwellings and other buildings for land appropriated for township cemetery purposes.

Provide a marketable title law for real property.

Increase capital and surplus requirements for other than life insurance firms operating in Ohio.

50 Cents Paid For $24,000

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dolly Williams, a department store shoe clerk, found a woman's purse in a downtown office building Thursday.

Miss Williams, 35, said she started to take the purse to the building office—without looking inside it—when she was stopped by a distraught, elderly woman. Miss Williams told this story: The woman snatched the purse away from her, opened it and asked: "Do you know how much money is in this purse? There's $24,000 cash in it. I'm a crazy woman to carry this much."

Miss Williams said the woman hugged and thanked her, then vanished without leaving her name.

But, Miss Williams added, the woman did leave her a reward: 50 cents.

London Is 150 Today

LONDON, Ohio (AP) — London celebrates its 150th birthday tonight with a series of festivities scheduled to last five days.

IN HIGH GEAR — That UAW industry negotiations are not all of a table-pounding character as indicated here as General Motors Vice President Louis G. Seaton (left) and Auto Workers President Walter Reuther shake hands across the bargaining table in Detroit. The UAW is trying to trade in its contract on a new model.

Ohio School Subsidy Bill Due for Vote in Assembly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The school subsidy bill—a partnership pact between the legislature and the public schools for which it has final responsibility—was scheduled for a floor vote in the House today.

But it was considered doubtful that representatives would act on the measure before both houses adjourned for a four-day rest from legislative labors. They'll return Wednesday and try to wind up working sessions before the end of next week.

The bill amounts to $466,825,000, reflecting ever-increasing enrollments. The foundation program is designed to provide at least a minimum-standard education in every public school system in the state, and to give financial help in operating these systems.

The 1959 legislature appropriated $413,150,000.

Senate action was scheduled on a House-approved bill to help county governments meet modern problems. Permissive in nature, it provides means for voters to approve a system of countywide offices and other steps which could be taken by a policy-making board of county commissioners.

Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem, R-Athens, was to name three senators to meet with three members of the House in an attempt to iron out Senate-House differences on the $2 billion state government operating funds bill.

House Speaker Roger Cloud, R-Logan, appointed his three during a skeleton session in that chamber Thursday night. They are Reps. Ralph E. Fisher, R-Wayne; Elton Lahr, R-Sandusky, and G.

Hamrick Heads Local Chapter Of Red Cross

George Hamrick, Pickaway County extension agent, will head the local chapter of the American Red Cross during the next 12 months.

Hamrick was elected Wednesday night during the annual chapter general meeting at Pickaway Arms. Dr. Robert Smith will assist Hamrick as vice president. Everett Beers was chosen as treasurer and Mrs. Wells Wilson was returned to the secretary's post.

After the yearly reports of Red Cross departmental activity had been presented to the group, Mrs. Lewis Cook, chairman of the nominating committee announced the replacements of the board of directors.

These persons were selected to fill vacancies created during the past year by resignations and expiration of terms: Dr. Robert Burton, Mrs. Roy Fraunfelder, Robert Conaway, Don Vogel, Mrs. Felix Dore, Robert Johnson, John Robinson, Mrs. Milton Renick, Harold Furniss, Mrs. Chaney Vance, Montford Kirkwood and Larry Varble.

Only tentative plans were discussed concerning operation of the county Red Cross for the next year. About 25 supporters of the public assistance organization attended the session.

Ohio Blue Law Called 'Stupid'

D. Tablack, D-Mahoning. Fisher is chairman of the House Finance Committee, and the other two are members.

The stage was set for the conference committee when the House refused to approve cuts of nearly $17 million made in the appropriations bill by the Senate. The Senate, in turn, insisted on its changes. The House already had trimmed about $26 million.

Senator Says U.S. Cannot Act Alone

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., has cautioned the United States against the "dangerous doctrine" of unilateral military intervention anywhere to prevent the spread of communism.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, is an important Senate voice on foreign affairs. His address to the Senate Thursday was considered a major foreign policy speech.

"Nothing would please Communist leaders more," Fulbright said, "than to draw the United States into costly commitments of its resources to peripheral struggles in which the principal Communist powers are not themselves directly involved."

Fulbright concentrated mostly on Cuba. He studiously avoided discussion of the Berlin crisis after remarking that it is "at this moment under the most serious study by this government and our European allies." He evidently put Berlin in a different category.

For the United States to try to overthrow the pro-Communist Castro regime in Cuba by use of its own forces, Fulbright said, might alienate "most of Latin America, Asia and Africa."

He referred specifically, too, to the Southeast Asian kingdom of Laos in striking at suggestions that the United States "should not hesitate to commit its strength to the active defense of its policies" anywhere outside the Communist empire.

Old-Age Pensions May Be Delayed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Old-age pension checks for about 10,000 recipients in 13 counties will be delayed unless the Legislature enacts the state budget bill before next Monday, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle reported today.

He said the checks averaging $66.23 each normally would be mailed next Monday to pensioners in counties at the top of the alphabetical list. They range from Adams through Clermont.

A total of 88,500 pensioners are on the rolls. Checks normally go out on different days throughout the month to the various counties.

A deadlock over budget cuts has blocked passage enactment of appropriations to run the state.

Ohio Blue Law Called 'Stupid'

Euclid City Judge Throws Out Complaint

CLEVELAND (AP) — Charges against a Lawson Milk Co. employee in connection with violations of Ohio's Sunday closing law were thrown out of Euclid Municipal Court today in a ruling by Judge William F. Burns.

Judge Burns called the law unconstitutional in his ruling, saying it contained no criteria to guide enforcement officers.

"Ramifications of this silly, stupid law are endless," the judge said. "No one court in any one case can give a set of definitions of this state law that will fit every set of facts, every contingency or every case that will be acceptable to all and fit every situation."

Judge Burns said it would take "a lexicographer and not a judge" to interpret the law.

"Everyone is confused by the wording of the ordinance," he said, adding that prompt action by the governor and the legislature "is the only one course out of his dilemma."

Each court will have its own interpretation as cases come up, said the judge, and this will result in chaos in the courts, will mean unnecessary financial burden on communities trying to enforce the law, and endless litigation.

The judge acted on four motions by Lawson attorneys seeking to quash the charges against the store employee. He denied one motion, which was based on the contention the law was in violation of the first and 14th amendments to the Constitution.

The judge said he felt the constitutionality of the law had been determined as regards the prohibitive section of the law.

He said he based his opinion on the section that exempted commodities used in recreation, sports, entertainment and amusements.

Legion Chief Sees War as Possibility

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — National Commander William R. Burke of the American Legion says that unless Soviet Premier Khrushchev is "bluffing on Berlin or we surrender, we will be at war by the end of this year."

He told about 7,000 delegates at the opening of the 43rd annual convention of the California department of the Legion Thursday: "We should prepare for what appears to be inevitable war."

"If in order to insure that the United States survives it is necessary to destroy Castro and Khrushchev and communism, I say, let us get on with the task."

Marilyn Monroe Rests After Major Surgery

The blonde beauty, 34, was in the operating room for 2½ hours.

Red Threats Bring Firm Yank Attitude

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States may increase its military forces in Europe to strengthen NATO defenses in preparation for a possible showdown with the Soviet Union later this year over Red threats to West Berlin.

Such a move is understood to be one of the measures being studied by Kennedy administration policy makers for dealing with the Berlin crisis.

President Kennedy met with the National Security Council for two hours and 40 minutes late Thursday to discuss steps that may be taken.

The White House kept the discussions secret, and, the news secretary, Pierre Salinger, declined even to say which officials attended.

It was not disclosed when final decisions may be made and action initiated. It is known, however, that top officials believe some redeployment of U.S. forces may be necessary because of the threat posed by Soviet Premier Khrushchev to the position of the Western powers in West Berlin.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, speaking in a television interview Thursday night, said one thing which is necessary in the developing crisis is to try to avoid any "miscalculation"—by the Soviet Union—of what the Western Allies will do if and when their vital interests are threatened.

Rusk predicted that a number of steps will be taken "aimed at the avoidance of this kind of miscalculation." He did not make any reference to military measures but said there would be "points of clarification, of purpose and procedure and issue."

The range of possible steps under consideration by the President and his chief advisers, including Rusk and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, is known to include military measures.

The United States is understood to have been urging its NATO allies to increase their own military strength in Europe so that if a showdown with the Soviet Union develops and a conflict threatens it may be dealt with, at least at the very outset, by nonnuclear means. Kennedy administration officials were cheered by the recent decision of French President Charles de Gaulle to shift a division of French troops from Algeria back to France.

The United States itself has five divisions in Europe out of its total of 14 now in active service. Altogether, U. S. troop strength in Europe totals 250,000 men, but this includes a large number of service and supply troops.

Grigg Honored For 25 Years Of GE Service

Ed Grigg, local General Electric plant manager, was honored today by his fellow employees on the occasion of his 25th anniversary with GE.

Grigg came to Circleville in April of 1948 when the Circleville Lamp Plant was in the early stages of construction and has been the plant manager since.

In 1958 the plant was doubled in size and according to industry statistics, it is the largest fluorescent lamp plant in the world. The plant presently employs 650 persons.

Grigg is a native of Richmond, Va., and a graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute with degrees in electrical and industrial engineering. He has also spent three years in part-time study at Western Reserve University, doing undergraduate and graduate work in business administration.

He joined General Electric in 1936 as a test engineer in Pittsfield, Mass. and had other test engineering assignments in Philadelphia, Pa. and Schenectady, N. Y. before joining the Lamp Division in Cleveland.

Grigg's Lamp Division assignments include three years at Euclid Lamp Plant in Cleveland, two

Youth Denies Voluntary Return to County Home

The question of whether a 15-year-old boy returned voluntarily to the Pickaway County Children's Home after running away touched off another round of controversy today among juvenile authorities.

John Sprou, the youth involved, left the home originally Friday night in the company of two 14-year-old boys. The other two were apprehended by city police about 2 a. m. Saturday and turned over to the Juvenile Court.

Sprou fled from Police on a bicycle and was at large Saturday and Sunday. Meanwhile, Juvenile Judge Guy G. Cline had issued an order terminating the authority of the Child Welfare Board, operators of the home, over the two 14-year-olds.

It was reported Monday that the third boy had returned to the Children's Home. Winfield Koch, home superintendent, stated at that time that the youth had returned, and that he "was glad to be back."

KOCH commented he had witnessed to substantiate his claim that the boy told him he wanted to remain at the home. The superintendent said he had asked the youth when he returned if he wished to "go to town to see the police or Mr. Starkey (juvenile probation officer) or anyone else."

The boy, according to Koch, said he did not.

Late last night Sprou was apprehended by city police as he roamed the streets after leaving the home a second time. His story of returning to the home differed in most respects from earlier statements by the superintendent.

The boy alleges that a former resident of the home, Vernon Larie 17, stopped him as he was walking on E. Main St. Monday. He said Larie grabbed his arm and persuaded him to return to the home.

The boy added he "did not want" to go back to the juvenile center. He said that his only thought was "to get out" of the home. Asked if he had told Koch that he was glad to return, the youth said "No, I didn't."

HE ALSO noted he did not remember telling the superintendent he wished to stay at the home. On the contrary, Sprou said "I told Mr. Koch I wanted to go to an uncle who lives in town."

Koch described the youth as "a very confused boy." "I've had very little trouble with him. He has been pretty good," Koch added.

Juvenile authorities said the boy will be remanded to the county jail while an investigation is carried out. Judge Cline is out of the city for two weeks, and Juvenile Judge Robert U. Hastings of Lancaster is sitting by assignment on the Pickaway County bench.

Woman Is Sought As Kidnap-Slayer

BUFFALO (AP)—A 34-state alarm is out for a slender, attractive woman whose name police do not know but who is pictured by 14 persons as the kidnap-slayer of Andrew Ashley, 3.

The trousers worn by the boy the day he disappeared and some strips of toweling were found Thursday in Delaware Park, where Andy was killed. These were considered possible clues.

Despite hundreds of telephoned tips and around-the-clock work by dozens of investigators, not a single major lead has turned up in the apparently motiveless killing.

Viruses Linked To Cancers

Piggy-Back Carry Is Seen Possible

NEW YORK (AP)—Piggy-back viruses possibly are a cause of cancer, medical researchers said today.

These viruses would pick up and carry tiny amounts of cancer-causing chemicals in piggy-back fashion. When the viruses invaded living cells, they could seek the cells with the chemicals to trigger off cancerous growths.

Mouse experiments provide evidence for the virus-cancer link, and perhaps the same thing happens in humans, the researchers told the American Medical Association.

The experiments were made by Drs. Christopher Martin and Sig-mund Magnusson and two medical students, Philip J. Goscinski and Gerald F. Hansen, of Seton Hall College of Medicine, Jersey City, N.J.

They wondered whether garden-variety viruses might introduce cancer agents, somewhat like a mosquito bite can transmit malaria.

They first injected mice with moderate doses of a polio virus, or a virus used to vaccinate against smallpox, or two viruses which cause grippelike diseases.

These injections didn't produce significant illness.

Nothing much happened, either, when mice were given small doses of two cancer-causing chemicals.

But when mice were infected both with one of the viruses and one of the cancer agents, the mice developed a variety of cancers. Some got leukemias or blood cancers, some cancers of the lymph glands, others of connective tissues.

If mice were first immunized against smallpox, and then injected with the virus plus cancer agent, few of the mice got cancers, compared with those not vaccinated.

Ohioan Urges Vote Age Cut, Talks to Reds

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Marion Ohio, student at Findlay College represented the nation's small colleges Wednesday as he testified in behalf of a bill that would lower the voting age to 18.

Leo Savage, 21, told the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee, headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., that he favors lowering the voting age to 18 because of the outstanding educational program in the U.S.

He was accompanied here by James Tate, 20, of Findlay, Ohio.

After testifying, Savage went to the Soviet Embassy where he interviewed Edwardo A. Saratov, third secretary of the embassy. In the two-hour session, Saratov gave these opinions:

On West Berlin — Khrushchev's speech did not constitute a threat but merely said it's high time the Berlin question is settled.

On news reporting — The U.S. press is bent on distorting the truth about the Soviet Union.

On Cuba — Castro will retain power if he retains the support of the people.

On Laos — Solution of the problem of Laos is tied to the problem of world disarmament.

On Red China—China cannot be controlled by the Soviet Union.

On religion — Churches in Russia are for old people because all Communists must be atheists.

On Eichmann—Israelis are with in their rights in trying Eichmann.

On Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy—Mr. Kennedy so far has had only one fiasco, Cuba, but the Eisenhower administration was a complete fiasco.

Farm Vacationing Expands in Ohio

Farm vacationing is becoming the fastest growing business in Ohio as hundreds of city dwellers discover the unusual delights of spending a few weeks in a veritable land of milk and honey.

Two more counties in South-eastern Ohio have organized associations to cater to the vacationers who want to sample the peace and beauty of Ohio's countryside.

Joining the Switzerland of Ohio Farm Vacationland Association of Monroe County are the Noble Hills Farm Vacation Association of Noble County and the Guernsey Farm Vacation Association of Guernsey County. The new groups will make it possible for more persons to find accommodations in the hill country this summer.

All farms in the vacation business have been inspected and approved by the county health officials so that the only hazard to health is the possibility of over-eating from the bountiful meals offered on the farms.

All three associations have published brochures describing the attractions and facilities available in each area. Information about the farms in Noble County may be obtained by writing to Mrs. Leone Garrett, secretary, Noble Hills Association, Summerfield, Ohio. Descriptive material concerning Guernsey County farms is available through the association's president, Mrs. Robert Hodges, Rt. 5, Cambridge. For literature about Switzerland of Ohio, write Mrs. Ruth Dennison, Rt. 4, Woodsfield.

The expansion of the farm vacationland area makes it possible to offer additional attractions to vacationers. Some of the farms in Guernsey County are within a short distance to Senecaville Dam which is one of the fine fishing lakes of the Muskingum Conservancy District. Within the three-county vacation area there are lakes, swimming pools, riding academies, golf courses and other facilities to enhance the enjoyment of tourists and vacationers.

One of the big inducements for vacationers is the cost of lodging and meals with entertainment and recreation included, the weekly rate is $35 per week in most homes with a few charging slightly more.

'Moon Camp' Plan Outlined to Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — David Sarnoff outlined today a plan for setting up a well-stocked "moon camp" that would be ready and in place before the first man took off on a lunar flight.

In an address for a National Press Club luncheon marking the 100th anniversary of the military telegraph, the Radio Corp. of America board chairman said the camp—complete with food, water and power—could be set up through remote-controlled electronic equipment.

He said plans for the camp, which could establish "a pattern for the construction of other advanced bases," have already been developed by RCA scientists.

Parking Meter Thieves Work Hard, Get Little

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Muscular thieves were thorough in pilfering three parking meters in South Dallas.

"These thieves not only removed the whole meters, but they took the posts—digging them out of the concrete," said Police Traffic Engineer W. H. Garsten. "And that's mighty hard work for only $1.50 to $2.50 in each meter."

Anyone who thinks there is no good fishing in Ohio should read the story "Cats Are Up His Alley", a saga of fishing in Ohio which appears in the July issue of Outdoor Life. Most of the action in the story takes place on the Muskingum Conservancy District lakes.

People who like antique and classic cars have an opportunity to see more than 300 of the shiny restorations on parade through Hamilton and Fairfield on July 22, the date of the seventh annual exposition of vintage automobiles. The parade will start at 1 p. m. in Hamilton and return for the awarding of trophies at 4:30 p. m.

One of the most unusual things about Cleveland's newest recreational area, Oceana Park, is the specially built swimming pool with the wave-making machine. The pool is 108 feet long with depths from six inches to six feet when the water is still, but the rolling surf reaches a crest of four and one-half feet when the wave machine is in operation. The surf machine has been an entertainment highlight in Europe for several years. Oceana Park is on Music Road in Newbury.

'Tough Guy' Cagney Claims Never Firing Shot in Anger

MUNICH (AP)—German fans look in awe at "der tuff guy," James Cagney, convinced that he is equally adept with a gun or his fists.

They should know that he has never fired a shot in anger. And he hasn't been in a fist fight since he was 17.

"It was after school in New York one day," he confessed. "This mean character was bothering a friend of mine, and I told him to cut it out. The guy wouldn't quit."

"I happened to be standing on a high curb, so it brought me up to his size. I figured the only way to win the fight was to get it over in a hurry. I put one hand in back of his head and hit him with the other one. I broke his nose and that was the end of the fight."

That was also the end of Cagney's fist career. But he has made toughness pay off on the screen; in fact, he is now marking 30 years as a star. His first big dent on the public consciousness was "Public Enemy" in 1931.

Though he has played everything from Chaney to George M. Cohan (Academy Award, 1942), he is still best remembered for those two-fisted early years. Cagney admitted that he and his fellow screen gangsters face social hazards.

"If you go out to night clubs, there is always some guy who wants to show off in front of his girl," he said. "Some actors go around looking for this sort of thing by sitting at the head tables. But there are ways of avoiding it."

Cagney has made a science of doing so. He has long stayed out of the movie whirl. For 25 years, he has lived at least six months a year away from Hollywood.

Next year he will mark 40 years with the same wife—"and it's been good all the way."

The star is in Germany to play a hard-hitting American businessman in Billy Wilder's "One, Two, Three." It's Cagney's first comedy since "Mister Roberts" and "the talkingest part I've ever had."

Teenage Elopers Held after Crash

CINCINNATI (AP) — Juvenile authorities are holding a teenage couple from Franklin who were captured early Tuesday after a wild automobile chase.

Both the youths' car and a police cruiser were wrecked in the pursuit which ended when the car driven by Jack King, 16, jumped a curb and crashed against a porch. King and Margerine Williams, 14, were flung from the car. Both suffered fractures, but were released to authorities after treatment.

Police said the car had been stolen at Mamisburg and that the youths were planning to elope.

Sanibel Island, off the west coast of Florida in the Gulf of Mexico, is said to have been named for Queen Isabella of Spain.

Rickover Unleashes Salvo

Vice Admiral Hyman Rickover, the Navy's self-appointed gadfly, has an irrefutable knack of stirring up hornets' nests. In his latest salvo, the admiral landed a broadside that must have enraged every senior officer in the fleet.

He raked the Navy "rotation" system, terming the frequent transfers of a fool-proof device for evasion of responsibility; recommended firing a third of the Navy's officers; advocated closing or overhauling the military academies, and committed the unforgivable sin of rejecting more money for his nuclear reactor projects.

Rickover was right about atom-powered submarines, and he may be right about the Navy's need for an overhaul. But as a naval officer, Rickover is violating the rules in publicly criticizing the hierarchy. But since he refuses to resign, and seems to be essential to the development of a nuclear-powered Navy, all that the Navy and the nation can do is grin and bear it.

But beyond his disdain for rules, Rickover is deeply concerned about the welfare of his country. And in the final accounting, the admiral may have performed a greater service for his country than any sailor since Admiral Nelson.

How To Impress a Foreigner

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—So you're going abroad this summer, and you want to make friends.

Well, you can—that is, if you manage to keep your foot out of your mouth. It's all in knowing what to say.

People overseas are basically like the people who live next door to you. They'd rather listen to you praise them than brag about yourself.

They won't mind if you overdo it a bit. They understand exaggeration is a typical American trait.

Avoid making unfavorable comparisons. If you must speak about the United States, be humble. This will cause the startled natives to respect you—or conclude you are too ill or tired to brag. In any case they'll like you better.

Here is a sample glossary of the kind of remarks that will get you red carpet treatment abroad.

In GREAT BRITAIN:

"That was a pretty tricky George Washington played on old Cornwallis—attacking just at tea-time. It really wasn't cricket at all."

"Ever since we quit being your colony, we've had nothing but trouble, trouble, trouble."

"What wonderful summer weather! Here, let me lend you my umbrella."

"We did our best to be of some help to you in the second World War, but, my, we were awfully late getting into it, weren't we?"

"If our trained diplomats had as much training as your trained diplomats, the world wouldn't be in such a mess."

In FRANCE:

"You mean we're having snails in garlic butter sauce again tonight? Goody, goody, goody."

"The service has been so wonderful, a 15 per cent tip doesn't seem enough. Please let me make it 25 per cent."

"You certainly are right, monsieur. American women are too bossy. They make slaves of their men. French women are much more feminine."

In RUSSIA:

"Da, comrade Khrushchev, it is a marvelous new steel plant. I wish we had a few like that back home."

"Here's a present: A brand new shovel—so you can bury us fast."

"Is that really a peasant? My, he's so well dressed—with those football shoulders and those wide, wide lapels. We sure could take a few fashion hints from you."

In GERMANY:

"Why, of course, I realize a swell fellow like you never could have been a Nazi."

"It's a mystery to me why the other countries envy your progress. After all you work hard and have discipline."

"You're absolutely right. We shouldn't have fought each other at all. We should have all simply gangued up on the Russians—just as you say."

Sometimes We Forget

By George Sokolsky

Professor Henry Steele Commager is an historian who has supported the New Deal and who believes:

"Sometimes we forget how close the Nazis and the Fascists and the war lords of Japan—with all their inhumanity, their hatred of life—came to victory. If Winston Churchill and Franklin D. Roosevelt had not formed their grand alliance; if Adolf Hitler had not committed the incredible folly of attacking Russia before he had disposed of Britain; if men of good will and of courage everywhere had not battled gallantly for freedom, there would be no point now in discussing advances. The black clouds of tyranny and superstition would have settled alike over all the past glories and future hopes of mankind."

In 1961, this particular paragraph is startling because as a result of our inability to recognize in 1939 the peril of supporting Soviet Russia, we are in major difficulties for which there seems to be no imminent solution.

"Mankind then was given a new lease on life."

What kind of a new lease of life was the world given? Since 1945, the world has been disturbed by constant war, by revolution, by upstart social and economic conditions everywhere. It is impossible to believe that World War II saved the world from disorder. World War II destroyed a thousand years of history, but it opened a new era—the era of the emergence of the masses under the leadership and guidance of an intellectual elite.

In vast areas of the Earth, Marxism has been substituted for Christianity. Socialism has been substituted for private ownership; materialism has been substituted for idealism.

None of this is justification for ignoring the errors in judgement and in policy during the past 30 years which resulted in the United States reaching the position of universal leader and then losing this position in the shortest time, in a conflict with Soviet Russia.

It is easy to say that had Hitler not been defeated, he would have attacked the United States. It is easier to say from the available facts that beginning with Stalin and running through the whole of the Khrushchev regime, the United States has been in the peril of war and has had to devote its budget to warlike preparations.

The new era is a continuation of war by all sorts of frightful devices.

Actually mankind has not been given a new lease on life but has suffered the calamities of permanent revolution and disturbance. We are at this moment in a more dangerous position than we ever have been in before and every person feels it in the disturbances not only in his economy but in social relationships, some of which are startling, particularly as between parents and children.

The professor further says:

"Important among these was the emerging of the peoples of Asia and Africa out of centuries of poverty and ignorance and oppression. Here is a revolution as significant as the Renaissance or the discovery of America."

But when in their history, have the people of China or Tibet or the Congo suffered greater oppression than at the present moment? When has Cuba, for instance, had a worse economy than its present one? When have the Cuban people suffered more oppression than now?

It is difficult to understand precisely what the purpose of this professional grandiloquent optimism is supposed to do for us. Are we to believe that all is well, even though taxes remain unconscionably high? Are we to assume that the condition of permanent revolution is a pleasant one and that living, for most human beings, is superior to what it was, say in 1912?

It is difficult for those who live in books to understand the harm that the very existence of Soviet Russia has done to the younger generation of this and other countries. The fact that much of the world is on a military basis, that young people live under the cloud of being called up, that marriages are either premature or are postponed indefinitely, that inflation destroys the value of money universally, are sufficient to justify the mood that things are much worse than they might be and the end in view is nothing to be optimistic about.

Certainly, the next generation must inherit a burden of debt and bad money.

Inside You and Yours

1. It takes two animals to give you malaria. True — False—

2. Malaria is limited to tropical climates. True — False—

3. Malaria can spread without mosquitoes. True — False—

4. Medicines prevent attacks, but don't cure malaria. True—False—

5. Fish help battle malaria. True — False—

1. True — usually! When the female mosquito of the anopheles family feasts on an infected victim, she draws his malaria-filled blood into her body. After the banquet, malaria germs grow inside her body and soon flood her saliva.

Now she can flit about injecting everyone with malaria. Soon each new victim is shaking feverishly.

The mosquito, an animal, must give you malaria. The second animal? The malaria germ! Unlike bacteria and viruses, it's a tiny one-celled animal!

2. False. Before DDT and other chemicals grounded mosquitoes, malaria swarmed as far north as Canada. As the mosquito bites the DDT-filled dust all over the world, malaria is slowly following the American buffalo into extinction.

3. True. A while back, malaria broke out in the well-screened-in New York City jail.

One prisoner had malaria when he was arrested. He passed the disease from cell to cell on a dirty hypodermic needle used to inject narcotics.

To play safe, blood banks refuse donors who have had malaria.

4. False. While World War II's medicines merely silenced malaria attacks, today's more powerful drugs can almost always cure the illness. You no longer have to watch for shivers and shakes when you stop taking malaria medicine!

5. True. Baby mosquitoes grow on the surface of stagnant pools. When fish gulp down these developing mosquitoes, they eat away most of the problem. To prevent malaria one fish is worth one thousand pills!

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Today we are trillionaires. The new status works both ways.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon says America's total debt at all levels tops a trillion dollars for the first time.

But look at the balance sheet of Americans as individuals. Their current assets are put at $959 billion. Add their fixed assets of $607 billion, and U.S. citizens can claim to be worth $1,566,000,000,000.

Of course, Secretary Dillon points out at the same time that individual debt totals $296 billion and continues to rise.

And as citizens we have a responsibility for the $290 billion federal debt and the $69 billion state and local debts. As stockholders they have an interest in corporate debt of $358 billion. (Corporate assets are much higher than this, and governments have financial and tangible assets, 500.)

Can you as American citizens afford to carry all this debt? A lot of people say no. But look at the brighter side of the financial balance sheet.

At the 1961 halfway point personal income is running at $414 billion a year. And personal savings have been climbing in the first half of 1961. Then there are those financial assets of $959 billion.

That figure is garnered from reports of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Federal Reserve Board, and the Department of Commerce.

The financial assets include $3 billions in preferred and common stocks, $102 billion in government securities, $26 billion in other securities such as corporate bonds and notes, nearly $67 billion in savings and loan associations and credit unions, more than $181 billion in currency and bank deposits. To that are added more than $149 billion in private insurance and pension reserves and $70 billion in various government insurance and pension reserves.

The fixed assets are figured this way: $404 billion equity in home ownership and $203 billion in current value of durable goods owned. The durable-goods equity is figured by totalling consumer purchases in the last 10 years, depreciated at 10 per cent annually.

The figuring to reach the total assets of one and a half trillion is subject to debate among accountants, as all such overall estimates are.

And the question of whether individuals' assets justify the steadily climbing personal debt — or whether the national economy, growing jerkily but steadily, justifies the rising total of government and private debt—is up for sharp debate in and out of Congress.

In New York financial circles the majority opinion is that both private and public debt is still on a sound basis. That is, the national and personal assets and the current national and personal incomes can carry the debt load without undue strain.

Rusk stressed in his discussion of the Berlin situation Thursday night that the United States intends "to explore every possibility of working out a tolerable peace that is consistent with the vital interests of our country." He said it is important to avoid running into a "dead end" in dealing with the Soviet Union on the Berlin dispute.

There is no doubt, Rusk said, that there will be discussions between the Western powers and the Soviet Union about Berlin, though he would not predict what form negotiations for a settlement might take. That will be determined in the course of discussion, he indicated.

Khrushchev has proposed to make West Berlin what he calls a "free city" with the withdrawal of U.S., British and French forces and the establishment of some kind of international guarantee. The Western powers have rejected this proposal repeatedly on the ground it would lead to domination of West Berlin by Communist East Germany.

In recent weeks, Khrushchev has threatened to sign a peace treaty with East Germany by the end of this year. He claims this would wipe out the rights of the Western powers with respect to Berlin, including access to the city across East German territory.

Rusk said the Western powers are in Berlin "by right, not by sufferance."

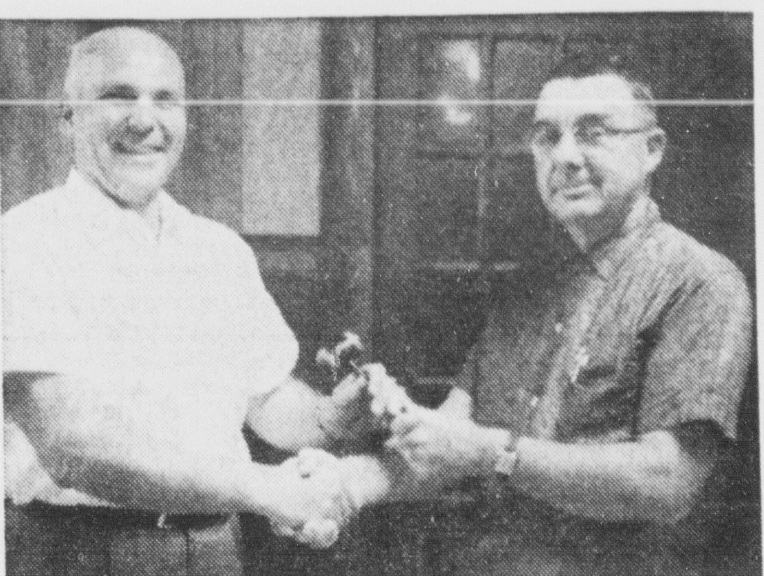

"We have obligations to ourselves and to the people of West Berlin," Rusk said in a transcribed discussion (CBS—At the Source), "and we do not accept the notion that those rights can be terminated, or that the security of the people of that city can be endangered by the unilateral action taken by someone else."

As to how the crisis will develop, Rusk thought that Khrushchev might try to whittle down the rights of the Western powers in slow stages instead of presenting them with an open challenge as dramatic as a forcible interruption of their land or air traffic between West Germany and Berlin.

Consultations are now going on intensively between the United States, Britain, France and West Germany and between them and the other members of the 15-nation North Atlantic alliance on preparatory measures which should be taken in the next few months.

The East Germans issued a decree Wednesday that after Aug. 1 airplanes flying across its territory must register with East German authorities. The decree did not specifically mention planes using the air corridors to Berlin, but U.S. officials thought the Reds might later seek to interpret it to apply to corridor flights.

The State Department bluntly denied the right of the East German regime to impose any regulations on allied air traffic using the corridors.

New Anti-Red Bill Proposed By Ohio Solon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio congressman Gordon Scherer, a Republican from Cincinnati, introduced a bill which he said would deal with Communists and subversives in this country.

Scherer, ranking Republican on the House Committee on Un-American Activities, said the bill would apply to any individual who refuses to appear before any federal agency or refuses to answer under oath truthfully any question concerning:

—His own membership or the membership of any other individual, in the Communist party or any other totalitarian party of the United States.

—His own participation or the participation of any other individual, in activities conducted by or under the direction of any such party, these people would be ineligible thereafter

1. To hold any office under the Constitution or laws of the United States;

2. To hold, or to be issued, any certificate, license, passport, or other document, issued under authority of any law of the United States of America, which confers any right, privilege, or benefit upon such individual; and

3. To apply for or to be granted any other right, privilege, or benefit under any law of the United States.

Views on TV-Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"What did people do before they had television?" asked playwright and producer Dore Schary. "Well, we probably read more books. We probably went out to the movies more often. We played cards more. And, one thing I'm sure we all did: We talked more."

Television, Schary believes, can be as habit-forming as a drug. "It's so comfortable to sit there in an easy chair," he continued. "It's easier to watch something you're only mildly interested in than it is to move."

Last winter during a long siege of hepatitis, Schary's wife, Miriam, had only one source of entertainment: TV.

"She watched everything," Schary said, "and she found that she became extremely interested in programs she had never bothered to watch before."

Schary, former production head of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, successful film writer and author of two Broadway hits, will produce the first of a series of 13 specials on three networks next season which will be sponsored by an electrical company. The program is called "The Sound of the Sixties."

The time of the year has come when this column—and this columnist—takes a vacation.

And how will this columnist spend the days when there are no stories to be written, no publicity releases to be read, no star to interview?

No, I do not plan to unplug the television set. Rather, I expect to watch television a lot, but only the programs that sound promising and new to me. And, for one glorious month, I can exercise a privilege most other viewers use all the time: I can stop looking at a program the minute it bores or offends.

There are books to be read, too—Gladys Schmidt's "Rembrandt," Shirer's "Rise and Fall of the Third Reich" (both saved for the purpose), also Stan Opatowsky's "TV, The Big Picture," which I skimmed and found full of interesting behind-the-scenes TV information.

There is a garden to be weeded, golf to be played. There may be Sundays when I miss Ed Sullivan and "Meet the Press." But, early or late, one telecast I'll be watching will be the second Project Mercury shoot.

Recommended tonight: "Way Out," CBS, 9:30 (Eastern Daylight Time)—"Side Show," about a man in love with a headless woman; "Person to Person," CBS, 10:30-11—a visit with comedienne Carol Burnett.

Church-State Controversy Threatens U.S. Peace Corps

NEW YORK (AP)—The church-state controversy, recurring vexation of the New Frontier, now is threatening to plague President Kennedy's Peace Corps program.

The issue is to what extent the federal government may make use of established American missionary groups overseas to carry out the humanitarian objectives of the corps.

R. Sargent Shriver, director of the corps, has said the new program should supplement, not supplant, existing governmental and private aid efforts. In fact, of the $40-million budget which the corps has submitted to Congress for approval, $26 million would be spent through universities and voluntary agencies.

But Shriver has made it clear the government should see to it "that no activities inconsistent with the Peace Corps were carried on, such as religious proselytizing or propagandizing."

Still, some staunch church-state separatists are skeptical that groups which have been working abroad for both religious and humanitarian purposes could put aside their religious motives in order to use government funds and Peace Corpsmen in their projects.

Director Shriver has said it would be in the interest of both economy and efficiency to use private agencies already trained in welfare work abroad because it will cost the government about $9,000 a year to train, equip and support each new Peace Corpsman.

The United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. and the American Jewish Congress, to name two groups, have expressed opposition to using overseas church agencies.

The Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) and the Roman Catholic Church both have come out solidly in favor of it.

The American Baptist Convention, while encouraging its members to volunteer for the corps, has urged strict caution to see that "no project sponsored by the Peace Corps shall further any religious cause."

The Rev. Dr. Robert E. Van Deusen, representing the National Lutheran Council at a Senate committee hearing on a bill to make the Peace Corps a permanent government activity, said his church had not yet decided whether it would enter cooperative projects with the corps but that he personally doubted it.

Director Shriver has said the corps would not contract with a religious group which confines its recruiting to members of its own denomination.

A spokesman for the National Catholic Welfare Conference, F. Robert Melina, said his church for one would be willing to accept non-Catholic Peace Corps volunteers on its overseas welfare projects.

The NCWC, which coordinates American Catholic enterprises, has even established a Peace Corps desk at its Washington headquarters to handle requests of Catholic individuals and agencies who want to participate.

As to the constitutionality of such participation, the Catholic magazine "America" felt the whole discussion unwarranted.

Joint Chiefs See No Clash With Taylor

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff expects no clash of authority with Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, President Kennedy's new military adviser.

Sources close to the chairman, Gen. Lyman Lemnitzer, said today he welcomes the Taylor appointment.

Taylor is clearly on record as opposed to the joint chiefs system. On several occasions he has called for dissolving the joint chiefs setup and replacing it with a single defense chief of staff and an advisory board he has called the supreme military council.

Lemnitzer, who served under Taylor a little more than two years ago, does not regard Kennedy's new assignment for Taylor as imposing a new layer between the president and the service chiefs, these sources said. Under the law, the chiefs are the president's chief military advisers.

"Taylor will not be a fifth member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff," one authority said, noting that Taylor will have no place in the chain of command.

Lemnitzer presides over the joint chiefs, which includes the Air Force and Army chiefs of staff, the chief of naval operations and, when the situation dictates, the commandant of the Marine Corps.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Feathered Pest Identified

DEAR ABBY: The bird your reader inquired about, with the shiny black plumage and yellow beak, is the STARLING. It is found in the USA and Canada all year 'round. I discovered this bird while I was hanging out my wash in my short shorts. I heard a long, low whistle and thought a man was trying to be fresh with me.

I am told they eat destructive insects, but they can also drill holes in your roof and are extremely dirty. They make a terrible racket when a flock of them gets together. They are an amusing and handsome bird, but will soon be the world's worst feathered pest.

MRS. F.
DEAR MRS. F.: Not while the pigeon is with us!

DEAR ABBY: Our son is marrying a girl from a very high-toned family. The girl's mother asked me for a list of the people we want at the wedding. She said I could invite my relatives. Some of our relatives are not very classy. I don't want to sound like I am trying to snub them, but I know they wouldn't fit in too good with the girl's people. How can I invite part of the family (the part I think will fit in) and leave the other part out?

MOTHER OF THE GROOM
DEAR MOTHER: If you plan to invite the relatives—invite all the relatives. There will probably be a few misfits on the girl's side who will fit in perfectly with yours.

DEAR ABBY: I have not made a habit of reading letters to Abby, but I think I shall, for each time my glance falls upon your column I realize what I have missed in the study of human nature.

I was particularly intrigued with a letter signed "Mother of a Doctor." She was disgusted with her daughter-in-law who insisted on referring to her husband as "The Doctor."

I am reminded of Bill and Marie whom we have known since childhood. Colonels were a dime a dozen in the last war, but Marie started calling her husband "The Colonel." This revealed an inferiority complex and a lack of taste.

As a West Pointer and ex-Captain, I wouldn't tolerate my wife's calling me "The Captain." My father was a doctor, and none of us (least of all my mother) called him "The Doctor." There were 50 other good ones in our town. "Mother of a Doctor" has my sympathy.

Mary, Mother of Jesus

THE PLACE ASSIGNED TO MARY IN EARLY CHURCH RECORDS

Scripture—Matthew 1:18-25; 12:46-50; Luke 1:26-52; John 2:1-10; 19:25-27; Acts 1:14.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
IN THE Third Quarter of this year's Sunday School lessons we shall study some of the personalities of the New Testament.

The first of these is Mary, the mother of Christ. She is not necessarily, however, the most important.

As Wilbur Smith points out
(in "Peloubet's Select Notes"),
"there cannot be discovered in any single line of the Gospel records justification for the worship now accorded by (some) to Mary." She was the mother of Christ, yes; but she herself was not divine, and the Scriptures almost go out of their way to emphasize that fact.

Never does the Bible give her divine names or indicate in any way that she should be worshipped.

For example, in the scene where the disciples are assembled in the upper room praying (Acts 1:14), Mary is mentioned simply as one of the women.

On the other hand, as the mortal chosen by God to be

Nunc Dimittis of Simeon (2:29-35)—all famous in church music, the titles being taken from the first word of the Latin text in each case.

An interesting sidelight is the history and meaning of Bethlehem, where Jesus was born. The city first appears as early as Genesis 35:18-21, with the birth of Rachel's son, Benjamin, and her death—already a place of birth and motherhood.

The name means "House of Bread"—significant in the light of the Communion Bread—Christ.

Mary's offering of a "sacrifice according to . . . the law" (Luke 2:24) for Christ refers to the fact that every firstborn male belonged by right to God and therefore "had to be redeemed from service in the sanctuary by a payment . . ."
(Alfred Plummer in "Peloubet's Select Notes").

It was Christ's second visit to the temple, at age 12, that caused Mary alarm (Luke 2:40-52). How typically human is Mary's distress and rebuke
when, after a frantic three-day

GOLDEN TEXT

"My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. For He hath regarded the low estate of His handmaiden; for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed."—Luke 1:46-48.

Christ's mother, Mary, is certainly worthy of study.

Chronologically in our lesson the Annunciation (Luke 1:26-38) comes first as a revelation of Mary's character. It is significant that God chose for His Son's mother not a wealthy woman, but one quite poor, and living in a town (Nazareth) known for its corruption. Even in such surroundings, the moral is suggested, one can walk in Godlike ways.

The angel tells Mary that she shall call her son Jesus, which is Greek for the Hebrew name, Joshua, meaning "Jehovah saves."

Next in chronological order comes the announcement made by the angel to Joseph about the divine birth, fulfilling the prophecy of Isaiah 7:14.

Luke continues to relate the Beatitude of Elisabeth (1:41-45), the Magnificat of Mary
(1:46-56), the Benedictus of Zacharias (1:68-79) and the Nunc Dimittis of Simeon (2:29-35).

Based on copyrighted outlines produced by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of Churches of Christ

search, she finds her lost Son studying in the temple, going
"about (His) Father's business."

In the passage about the wine
at the wedding (John 2:1-10)
Mary shows her confidence in her Son by telling the servants to do His bidding. Jesus' treatment of His mother seems most harsh until it is realized that the address, "Woman," was not offensive in those days, as it is today. The same term is used by Christ on the Cross as he commits her to the care of His beloved disciple, John (19:25-27). Mary's nephew.

The passage from Matthew (12:46-50) about Christ's ministry indicates that at that time Mary had not yet come to understand fully His mission.
Influenced, no doubt, by her other sons, she tries to dissuade Jesus from becoming a religious fanatic. By rebuking her, Christ tries to show her how important is His wider family.

REV. AND MRS. KEMPTON

Rev. Kempton Will Speak at Salem Methodist

The Rev. Charles Kempton of the First EUB Church, who recently returned from four years in London, Brazil, will speak at the Salem Methodist Church, Meade, at 8 p. m. Thursday.

He spent his first year in Sao Paulo in a Language School and was in Japan in 1953-54. He studied in the Oregon Seminary and finished school at Asbury College, Ky.

The Rev. Kempton is married to the former Lois Inboden, of Logan. They have three children.
He presently is working with the Rev. Charles Elkjer, former pastor of the Salem Church.

Has Own Fire Truck

HOPATCONG, N. J. (AP)—Richard Saffin, a veteran financier, has spent $500 on an item which he hopes he never has to use.

Saffin spent the money on a 1936 fire truck which Denville Township was replacing. It will be used to keep brush fires on Saffin's 1-200 acre estate under control until firemen arrive.

Saffin, senior partner in the New York investment firm of Boland, Saffin, Gordon & Sautter, says he is "deathly afraid" of brush fire.
He said five years ago a brush fire flared out of control and burned for a week.

Saffin says that despite the speed of firemen, "once a fire gets started, it's hard to put out."

Television Fare Mostly Re-Runs

If You Look Hard, New Programs Offered

"NEW YORK (AP) — There comes a season in the television year—and this is it, viewers—when the best program you can see is usually one you have seen before. But there is also some fresh material available, if you look hard.

"Person to Person" on CBS tonight (10:30-11 EST), is new. Host Charles Collingwood will go a calling on comedienne Carol Burnett and her teen-age sister.

Highlight of Saturday has to be ABC's "Fight of the Week"—just about everything else on the schedule is a repeat. National Boxing Association light-heavyweight champion Harold Johnson will move into the heavyweight division for a 10-round bout with Eddie Machen in Atlantic City.

Gen. Thomas D. White, retiring Air Force chief of staff, will be the guest of "Meet the Press" on Sunday (NBC, 6-6:30). Ed Sullivan's guests (CBS 8-9) include Louis Armstrong, Teresa Brewer and comics Rowan and Martin "Mystery Theatre"—repeat of programs which first ran in the same spot last summer—will move into NBC's 9-10 p.m. spot.

Re-runs of "The Ann Sothern Show" on CBS Monday (9:30-10 p.m.). On Tuesday (9:30-11 p.m.) CBS begins a weekly series of repeats of "Playhouse 90" dramas.

Wednesday night's "Mystery Theatre" on NBC will be "Break-out," an English-made whodunit with Lee ("Surfside Six") Paterson and Hazel Court.

TV's only new, live dramatic show will premiere Thursday—CBS's "Great Ghost Tales" (9:30-10 p.m.), with an adaptation of an Edgar Allan Poe story. It will be followed by a repeat of the Yul Brynner Special, "Rescue" (10-11).

German Reds Issue Air Traffic Rule

BERLIN (AP)—East German Communist authorities issued a new law today that could serve as a basis for halting air traffic between isolated West Berlin and the outside world.

Effective Aug. 1, the law will require all aircraft with radios to receive special permission from East German authorities to cross their territory.

Air traffic from West Germany to West Berlin now is handled by an air safety center including representatives from the United States, Soviet Russia, France and Britain.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Those in search of peace of mind but disturbed by the Russian ruckus on Berlin should try to stay calm in the next few months unless there is an actual crisis.

This seemed to be the message from Secretary of State Dean Rusk Thursday night.

In a TV interview he discussed dealing with the Russians now when they have tizzied the West with their renewed demands—about 2½ years old—that Berlin be turned into a "free city" and that the Allies get their troops out of it.

Ever since taking office Rusk has run his job like a man who had an understanding with President Kennedy that the secretary would play it cool and quiet while the President made the big pronouncements and furnished any fire needed.

Rusk was cool Thursday night, speaking very firmly on the Allies' determination not to be pushed out of Berlin. But he spoke very vaguely on just how the Allies were going to avoid being pushed.

Kennedy was just as vague on this point at his news conference Wednesday. In fairness to both men they may feel it much too soon to get down to specifics for fear of sounding belligerent.

But Rusk did reveal the kind of thinking which has become an international way of life in situations which may be extremely serious but are not in actual crisis.

It's this: Let's talk. This explains the fantastic number of international conferences by foreign ministers and representatives since World War II on subjects ranging from Berlin to nuclear tests and disarmament.

Rusk suggested that the Allies would discuss the Berlin problem among themselves—just as they did in 1959, after Premier Khrushchev first raised it—and then would discuss it with the Russians, just as they did in 1959.

Berlin was a long drawn-out business before and promises to be again unless this time the Russians are determined on less talk and more action.

Since it's been 2½ years that Khrushchev first upset the Western calm on Berlin, Rusk was asked if in the intervening time American planners had figured where to draw the line on the Russians.

Rusk wouldn't even go into that. He said Kennedy had dwelt

Man Wounded 4 Times By Single Pistol Bullet

ARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) — John Kastner, 35, was wounded four times by a single bullet.

He was fishing with friends when he dropped a 44-caliber side arm. The pistol struck a rock at Kastner's feet and discharged. The bullet struck the calf of his right leg, grazed his right thigh, nicked his right wrist and struck his upper right arm.

Kastner, hospitalized here, was reported in satisfactory condition.

Sartorial Notice

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — You have to be "properly clothed" to get a marriage license here.

Probate Judge Roscoe R. Walcutt, pointing out that "marriage is a serious undertaking," issued this notice to prospective brides and grooms applying for licenses to marry:

"We do not look with favor on shorts, peddle-pushers, Bermuda shorts and the like, and appearance in such attire by either men or women will lead to the refusal to accept the application until the parties appear properly clothed."

By James Marlow

raised over Berlin—setting then as now a six-month deadline for a settlement—didn't get any closer to a crisis than a conference between the Russian and Western foreign ministers.

And six days before that one petered out—it ended July 13—Khrushchev proposed a meeting with Eisenhower. Then he forgot about his own deadline and met with Eisenhower, a meeting which didn't solve Berlin at all.

Khrushchev talked tough in 1959, just as he's talking tough now. But what makes dealing with the unpredictable Khrushchev painful to the Allies is not knowing from one time to the next whether he means it.

But before Khrushchev this time reaches the point of blowing up or calming down there will probably be, as Rusk indicated, no end of jawing back and forth between East and West.

5-Racer Pileup Fails To Halt Pilot

By JOHN F. (RED) PHILLIPS
Sports Editor, Columbus Star

The old adage that all good things come to an end was proved abruptly to Ed Molkenite of Cleveland last Saturday at Lorain County Speedway.

The driver, who has been taking everything for the past several weeks there and at Sandusky Speedway, started around Woody Wright of Lorain to take the lead on the 17th lap.

Both ended in the fence near the starter's stand.

They took out Bob Hayduk,

Cleveland; Bud Pierce, South Bend Ind., and Paul Clark, Mansfield. None of the drivers was injured but all five cars were damaged. All expect to be back Saturday and Sunday at both tracks.

Dick Good of Mishawaka, Ind., took over the Molkenite routine of winning the features at both tracks.

Midvale Speedway at Uhrichsville started something new with a "guest dog clutch driver" each week. Gordon Dukes of Findlay will be the "guest dog" on the July 4 eve event Monday.

Ralph O'Day took both the Friday and Sunday features for modifieds at the Columbus Speedway. He beat Jim Cushman both times, but Saturday at Powell Speedway Cushman reversed the order.

Speaking of flying stocks, Chuck Hae of New Maumon, Ohio, won the main event at Kul-Kare Friday. At Atomic Speedway Saturday Dean Knittel of Portsmouth continued his winning ways in the modified event, and Tom Webb of Chillicothe won the sportsman's main race.

Sunday at Knox-Vernon Bob Dugan won the top driver in the main event.

Blair Kaufman won the hard top class at Cleveland's Cloverlea Wednesday night. Ed Bamerlin of Clevelanda copied Friday's modified event, and the veteran Bob James of Montrose took the honors in the late models Sunday.

They ran race again this week, including New Bremen with modifieds Sunday, and Canfield with modifieds an amateurs Saturday night.

Drags—Art Malone of Tampa, Fla., lived up to advance notices at the dragway 42 strip at West Salem last Sunday. He got his job up to 101 m. p. h., one of the best ever on an Ohio strip. Top elimination honors went to Gordon Collett of Portsmouth who ran 112.14 m.p.h.

Hyde Park at Newark will hold a mid-season championship drag event July 4, with special prizes. They also run on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday. Dick Padar of Heath, Ohio, is still top man, and last week made a run at 166.42 m.p.h.

Raven Rock Strip at Portsmouth will offer a July 4 special event in addition to its Sunday drags. Russ Wilson, local boy, was the top eliminator there again last week.

A grudge motorcycle drag looms at Mount Vernon's pacemaker strip Sunday. It features Duane Worden of Akron with his Twin Triumph against Tom Reiser of Columbus riding a Harley-Davidson powered with a Chevrolet Corvette motor.

The new Tri-State Dragway at Hamilton got off to a fine start Sunday with 168 cars on hand. The music maker from Dayton, handled by the Musick brothers, Ralph and Bob, set the strip's original record of 155.17 m.p.h.

Motorcycles—Carroll Reisweber of Cedarburg, Wis., the American Motorcycle Association's national champion, gave Ohio fans what they expected last week-end. Saturday night he won the expert feature at Lebanon Fairgrounds, and Sunday took the 10-mile national title at the Ohio State Fairgrounds in Columbus.

Ronnie Ball of Mansfield won Sunday's eight-mile final for amateurs at Columbus.

Scrambles riders will go to Greenville Sunday, where they will hold a state championship Tourist Trophy (TT) event. There will be open events for all, but the Ohio title event will be confined to Buckeye riders.

A sportsman hillclimb is slated at Lancaster Tuesday, July 4. Sunday at Gallon there will be a scrambles, and at Columbus a poker run.

On July 4 there will be sportsman short track races at Toledo, and a scrambles at Hillsboro.

Top Markings Listed by Lady Golfers

Caroline Caughman walked off with the lion's share of honors in Thursday's ladies golf competition at Pickaway Country Club.

Mrs. Caughman recorded the longest drive from the No. 1 tee and played the course in medal-winning 46-stroke fashion.

Alma Crites scored low number of putts for the day, and placed in a four-way deadlock for low net score laurels. Carolyn Champion, Sue Spires and Miriam Young shared the low net total.

Registrations for a match at Brookside Country Club, Columbus, July 13 should be turned in to club officials by Monday.

A contingent of PCC women will test the strength of Washington C. H. lady linksters in a match at Washington Country Club July 12.

Stonerock's Team Sets Guns for OFL Doubleheader

Stonerock's TV softballers will be out for glory Saturday when they meet Marion in an Ohio Fastball League doubleheader at Ted Lewis Park at 7 p. m. The twin contests mark the wrapup of Stonerock's OFL season.

Sunday, the TV outfit journeys to Greenfield for a nine-inning battle with a Highland County squad. The Fourth of July will bring another twinbill for the locals when they clash with River Oil's highly-touted club at Chillicothe Park.

The opener of the pair with Marion is scheduled to start at 7 p. m. Despite the early closing of the OFL, Stonerock's has a full slate of games on tap in other circuits as well as non-loop encounters throughout the summer months.

Ohio Senate Passes Bills OKd by House

The Senate passed eight bills Thursday which already had House approval. They are designed to:

Allow a 100 per cent increase—from $150 to $300—in the maximum amount a board of education may pay in annual dues to the State School Boards' Association.

Increase the number of trustees of county TB hospitals from three to five, to insure a quorum to conduct business.

Wipe out some railroad laws that are out of date or superseded by federal regulations.

Discourage frivolous requests for vote recounts by limiting the time when such a request may be made and demanding good reason.

Do away with a complicated formula for holding back funds by boards of education to assure faithful performance of contracts by those supplying labor or materials, but still permitting this method of making sure obligations are met.

Require county commissioners to provide necessary materials and a current set of Ohio laws for each county court judge.

Specifically state that government offices can enter into contract with private firms to develop films, because an attorney general's ruling said nothing in the law permits it.

Bring punishment for breaking wildlife laws into line with that for other relatively minor offenses (for instance, crediting each day served in jail as $3 off the fine, standard rate of redemption in Ohio, instead of $1 as it is in the wildlife laws).

The House refused to accept Senate changes in a bill detailing nine areas of sales tax exemption, bringing the need for another conference committee. And representatives defeated for the second time a bill requiring slow-moving farm vehicles to use red flasher lights on highways during the day.

The House passed and sent to the Senate a bill allowing Ohioans younger than 18 and military personnel on leave to fish without buying the $2 license. Ohioans 65 or over, and not drawing old age pensions, could buy licenses for 25 cents.

Old age pensioners need no license.

Members of the House also went along with Senate - okayed bills to:

Clarify the law on nurses in public schools.

Allow sheriffs and deputies to be bail bond officers in relatively minor offenses, so that no additional personnel need be kept on duty throughout the night.

Require that political advertising in various forms carry the name of the person responsible for it.

Itinerary Is Completed Here For Latin American Visitors

Buenos tardes, a friendly "hola" or perhaps just that international greeting—a pleasant smile—will be the order of the day for local Girl Scouts and Girl Scout adults when four Latin American visitors and their interpreter arrive in Circleville Saturday afternoon for a visit which will last until Wednesday morning.

The visitors are Mrs. Maria Teresa de Aguirre, a public school teacher and social worker from Oruro, Bolivia; Miss Rosa Araque Romero, chief social worker at the Chimbacalla Public Health Center, Quito, Ecuador; Mrs. Lucyman Rebello da Costa Lima, president, Guanabara State Society for Assistance to Lepers and Leprosy Prevention, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; and Miss Graciela Cruz Salazar, director and laboratory technician of the Health Center Laboratory in Oaxaca, Mexico.

Mrs. Lili Packer will accompany them as their interpreter. Eight others in their party are being entertained by Scout groups in Delaware and Maryland.

Mrs. Sterling Poling, who is coordinating the tour here, has listed the following schedule for their visit:

ARRIVING in Columbus on Friday evening they will remain there until Saturday when they will visit Camp Ken-Jockey, the Ohio Trefoil Girl Scout established camp. From there they will be accompanied to Circleville on Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Poling.

During the afternoon and early evening here they will visit a rest home, go shopping, drive through the residential area and visit the Walter Rase Dairy Farm. At this time or later they will visit Camp Miska on the Lyman Penn farm, the farm pond at the Richard Jones farm and the new Logan Elm High School.

On Sunday the Latin American visitors will attend church services at St. Joseph's Church of the First Methodist Church as guests of the Robert Schmidt family or the Poling family. Later they will accompany the Poling family to Ted Lewis Park for the Wright family reunion and a tour of the recreation facilities there.

On Sunday evening they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Lawson Jr. and family. On Monday, Mrs. Robert L. Brehmer Jr. will be their guide on a tour of Circleville industries.

Also on Monday they have been invited for a Welsh tea at the home of Mrs. William Defenbaugh and a picnic supper from the grill at the Polings. A meeting of Berger Hospital Guild 12 at the home of Mrs. Eldon Delong will complete their evening.

Along with many others in this area the Latin American visitors will participate in the Fourth of July Celebration at Ashville on Tuesday. Later that day they will visit the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt Cromley to view the farming operations carried on by Cromley and his father.

On Wednesday morning they will be escorted to the airport by Mrs. Robert Burton.

Senate OKs Plan To Alter Agencies

WASHINGTON (AP)—Over solid Republican opposition, the Senate has approved President Kennedy's plan to reorganize the Federal Trade Commission and the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Both plans previously had been upheld in the House. Thus Kennedy has a tally of two victories and two defeats in his efforts to, as he put it, streamline various regulatory agencies.

The House previously rejected a reorganization plan for the Federal Communications Commission and only last week the Senate turned down one for the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Still awaiting action are Kennedy's plans to reorganize the National Labor Relations Board, the Maritime Board, and the Federal Home Loan Bank Board.

Chrysler Set For Union Talks

'New Concepts' Sought By UAW Negotiators

DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler Corp., the only one of the big three automakers in the red this year, sits down today with the United Auto Workers to begin bargaining on new wage contracts which the union says must break new ground and develop new concepts.

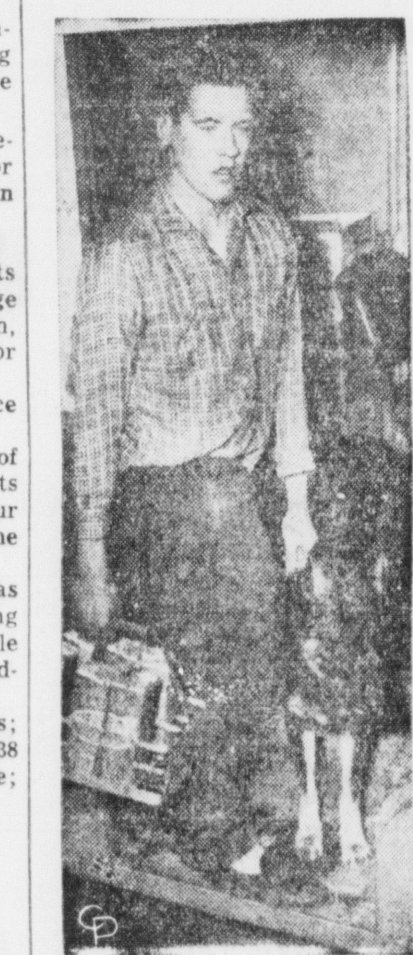

The UAW already has put Chrysler on notice it will not listen to a plea of poverty and will expect Chrysler to meet terms of contracts it is negotiating simultaneously with General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co., others of the big three.

Chrysler lost $21.9 million in this year's first quarter and some financial sources estimate it also lost money in the second quarter ending today. The UAW argues the wage contract is not to blame, since Ford, GM and American Motors rolled up profits with similar ones.

John D. Leary, Chrysler vice president for industrial relations, said in a statement: "The outcome of these negotiations is important not only for the future well-being of Chrysler, but also will have a direct bearing on the future well-being of its employees, its customers, its shareholders, its dealers and its suppliers."

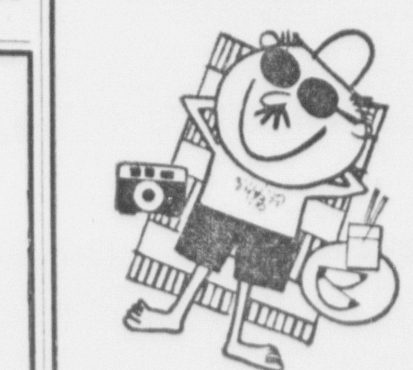

UAW President Walter P. Reuther, who led the union's bargaining team at Chrysler as he had in openings on successive days at General Motors and Ford, declared at Ford Thursday that "new ground will have to be broken and new concepts developed" in contract settlements this summer.

Meanwhile at General Motors, the UAW was presenting one of its ground-breaking proposals: Annual salaries instead of hourly wages for production workers.

GOOD DOG—Werner Sommers, 21, makes the rounds with his German shepherd, Joe, confident he won't be bothered by holdup men—at least, not the same one. That one held him up for $26, and Joe chased and caught the culprit. The $26 was retrieved, but the man escaped.

Stock Mart Slips into Indifference

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market slipped even further into indifference early this afternoon as the Independence Day weekend approached. Prices were mixed.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was down .20 to 242.40 with the industrials down .60, rails down .10 and utilities up .10.

Most prices showed fractional changes as trading became progressively duller. The stock exchanges will be open on Monday but many Wall Streeters were obviously preparing to make this a four-day weekend.

A few stocks responded to special news or developments but the trend was mixed among motors, oils, chemicals, rails, utilities and aircrafts. Tobaccos leaned to the upside and steels showed a slightly lower tendency.

Gulf Oil was nearly a point lower.

International Nickel advanced well over a point.

National Airlines rose more than a point.

MGM and Du Pont also rose more than a point. Union Carbide was about a point lower and Air Reduction slipped about 2.

Minor changes were the rule among most leading steels, motors, rails, farm implements, aircrafts and oils.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up .39 to 682.34.
